

Judy Nonkululeko Dlamini

Objective

Dynamic individual who holds a child's education as the highest priority. I would like the students to experience the English language in every way possible through me. As an Assistant teacher my biggest reward is to be able to watch the students grow in, enjoy and embrace English as a second language.

Work Experience

Assistance Teacher in South Korea

Wang bang Elementary school

2009/ 9/ 5- 2010/ 9/ 4

- Designed English programmes' accommodating over a 100 different students weekly.
- Taught all levels of elementary students without the use of textbook material but still managed to meet each student's needs.
- Conducted educational yet pleasurable lessons ranging from teaching the alphabet, sounds, sentence structure, conversational classes, free talking, karaoke, drama and even game relays.
- Executed an English winter camp for a month with 50 plus students daily, either at storytelling or during the telephone conversation sessions.
- Sacrificed myself so that the students can master English and speak confidently.

Concierge

National Arts Festival and Rhodes University vacation board and lodging

2007 September and 2008 June/ July

- Welcomed the guests with a smile on my face and worked 24 hour shifts weekly.
 - Informed and made sure that all guests were relaxed and happy in the house whilst at the festival.
 - Raised the guests living concerns and compliments at staff meetings and ensured that any fault found was turned into good service.
 - Communicated consistently between the guests, the cooking and cleaning committees.
-

Judy Nonkululeko Dlamini

Charity representative and senior student

Rhodes University, Truro House, Allan Webb Hall

2007 February- 2008 December

- Encouraged the resident member's to be aware of those less fortunate than us.
- Volunteered the resident in charitable events such as the Allan Webb Adventure (AWA) and the SHARC tin food collection.
- Attended weekly meetings that calculated annual hall events such as, AWA and the hall ball.
- Investigated designs and logistics for our House jackets. Managed the affairs between the manufacture and the House members, producing high quality jackets.

Events Organizer and acting chairperson

Electrosoc- Rhodes University

2007 February- 2009 March

- Single handedly managed and executed society monthly meetings, workshops and fourth quarterly functions.
- Empowered the Societies up and coming Dj's at monthly workshops and hired them at Society events.
- Flew down the world ranked Dj, Craig De Sousa, at our annual function whilst also promoting our flourishing Dj's.

Education

Sophomore year completed.

B.A. (Politics and philosophy)

Rhodes University,
Grahamstown 6140

References

References are available on request.