

Paul Eizaburo Kibayashi
Date of Birth: September 22, 1981
Ethnicity: Japanese/Korean
Citizenship: Canadian
Current Residence: Asakusabashi, Japan
Contact Information:
Mobile: +81 90 6122 0922
eiza@cafkaism.com
www.cafkaism.com

Education:

Waseda University (Tokyo, Japan)
09.'09 ~ Present
Doctor of Philosophy

McGill University (Montreal, Quebec. Canada)
09.'05 ~ 12.'06
Master of Architecture

Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario. Canada)
09.'00 ~ 04.'04 (graduated with distinction)
Bachelor of Architectural Studies

University of Westminster (London, England)
01.'03 ~ 06.'03
Department of Architecture (exchange student)

Experience:

Cafka Architects (Asakusabashi, Tokyo. Japan.)
10.'08 ~ Present (Principal architect)
www.cafkaism.com

Waseda University (Tokyo, Japan)
10.'09 ~ Present
Graduate teaching assistant - Teaches design studio courses to master's level students.

Frank O. Gehry Partners, LLP. (Los Angeles, California. U.S.A.)
01.'07 ~ 10.'08 (architect)

Louis Vuitton Moet Hennessey (LVMH Group) Museum in Paris, France.
(Under construction)
Responsible for designing the main gallery space with the lead designer, and coordinating structural details for the exterior design.

Lou Ruvo Brain Institute in Las Vegas, Nevada. U.S.A.
(Under construction)
Responsible for coordinating construction documents and worked on the final design development process (Frequent business trips to Las Vegas).

Beijing Central Business Park Design in China.

(Design development phase)

Responsible for concept design, schematic design, and worked directly with the lead designer on the main building situated at the Central Business Park.

Novartis International Human Resources Building. Basel, Switzerland.

(Completed)

Collaborated with Vitra to produce furniture mock-ups, and created prototype interior layouts for the new office spaces.

Philadelphia Museum of Art. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. U.S.A.

(Design development phase)

Responsible for schematic design and design development phase.

Chernoff Thompson Architects (Vancouver, B.C. Canada)

01.'05 ~ 08.'05 (intern architect)

University of Victoria Medical Sciences Building in Victoria, British Columbia. Canada.

Responsible for schematic design diagrams, construction documents, associated problem solving, the creation of prototype study models, and client presentations.

Simon Fraser University Laboratory Building in Burnaby, British Columbia. Canada

Responsible for assisting the project architect with construction documents.

Kibayashi Shouji Architect (Asakusabashi, Tokyo. Japan)

Summers of '99, '00, '01, '02 & '04 (design team intern)

Responsible for all aspects of small residential building projects including project design, associated problem solving, the creation of prototype study models, and presentation panels for clients.

With - Systems Architecture (Asakusabashi, Tokyo. Japan)

Summers of '02 & '04 (intern)

Assisted in designing and constructing With-Systems' office space, created massing models for proposed designs, Auto cad drafter, 3d renderings, graphite renderings of proposed residential facades, and created presentation panels for clients.

Global English Institute (Sunae, Bundang. South Korea)

10.'08 ~08.'09

Taught business English to executives, business managers, and University students.

BCM Educational Group (Kunkook, Seoul. South Korea)

06.'06 ~07.'06

Taught English to elementary, high school, and University students..

Canadian Society of Addiction Medicine (Vancouver, B.C. Canada)

August '05 (freelance graphic designer)

Presentation design panel chosen for their 17th annual scientific conference.

Scholarships and Competitions:

2006 Hobart Waterfront International Design Competition (Hobart, Australia)

Competed in an international design competition.

2005 The University of Pennsylvania (Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. U.S.A)
Merit entrance scholarship - was accepted to their Master of Architecture (Professional) program with $10,000 usd scholarship.

2004 International High - Rise Competition* (Berlin, Germany)
Fourth year undergraduate studio project ' the serpent' was selected to enter the competition, under a registered architect, Tom Dubicanic (a fourth year studio professor at Carleton University) *this competition was for registered architects only.

2003 Charrette Student Competition (Montréal, Quebec. Canada)
Competed in a belvedere design competition. This project was completed at McGill University and was displayed at University of Montréal.

2002 With - Systems Architecture (Asakusabashi, Tokyo. Japan)
Design was chosen as the company logo.

2001 Carleton University (Ottawa, Ontario. Canada)
Received 2001 Millennium scholarship.

Voluntary Works:

Tarek Naga Architect (Venice, California. U.S.A and Cairo, Egypt)
July '02 (volunteer translator)
Acted as Japanese translators for Mr. Naga's forum lecture at Tama Art University in Tokyo, Japan.

Karmayogi Organization (Mathura, India)
August '03 (community outreach volunteer)

Private Studio Teacher (North Vancouver, B.C. Canada.)
June ~ September '04
Taught a high school student who was accepted to Cornell University department of architecture, The Pratt Institute, and Parsons School of Design in New York.

Languages:

Fluent (written/spoken) in: English, Japanese, and conversational Korean

Related skills:

Software proficiency:
Adobe Photoshop CS4
Adobe After Effects CS4
Adobe Flash CS4
Adobe Dreamweaver
Adobe Illustrator CS4
Adobe Indesign CS4
Auto CAD 10'
Rhino
3D Studio Max 9.0
Maya 7.0
Sketch up 5.0
Microsoft PowerPoint