

Rachel Mador-House

120 Homewood Ave. Apt 1605, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M4Y 2J3 • Tel: 519-731-2548 • rachelmador@hotmail.com

OBJECTIVE

To teach English in South Korea, learn a new culture, and gain valuable work experience.

EDUCATION

University of Guelph, 2005-2009

Bachelor of Science, Honours Degree with a major in Molecular Biology and Genetics and a minor in Philosophy
Graduated with Distinction (top 3 graduates of my year)

EXPERIENCE

Summer 2009

Teacher

Peel Summer Academy, University of Toronto – Mississauga Campus

- Taught intellectually gifted children from ages 11-16 years old.
- Programmed daily lesson plans in Genetics, Biology, Medicine, Anatomy, and general science for classes of up to 25 students.

2008-2009

Private Music Instructor

Guelph, Ontario, Canada

- Taught piano, violin and voice to children ages 4-15 years old.
- Created fun and challenging lessons to encourage children's interest in music.

2007-2009

Peer Mentor/Tutor

University of Guelph – Peer Mentorship Program, Guelph, ON, Canada

- Mentored/taught younger students ages 6 – 21 years old.
- Developed lesson plans for tutoring in English, mathematics, genetics, chemistry, biology, and philosophy.
- Attend mentoring meetings and lessons to learn how to teach and lead.

2002 – 2006

Camp Counselor

Harbourfront Canoe and Kayak School, Toronto, ON, Canada

- Taught children ages 6 – 17 years old canoe, kayak and outdoors skills.
- Programmed daily activities and responsible for safety of up to 15 children in a group.
- From 2003-2006 also responsible for training other staff.

January – June 2002

Assistant Art Teacher

Neilson Park Creative Centre

- Worked with children ages 6 – 17 years old.
- Taught art skills in a fun and exciting way to encourage a passion for the arts.
- Monitored inventory as well as set up and cleaned up daily.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Over 7 years of experience teaching children from ages 4-22 in a variety of settings including outdoors, and indoors, in the fields of science, mathematics, English, art, music, and outdoor recreation.
- Graduated top 3 of 2009 in my Bachelor of Science Honours degree program.