

DAVID ÅANENSON

ASSOCIATE AIA, LEED AP

Jugong Apt.5 Danji Junggye 1-dong 504-514

Nowon-gu Seoul 139-781 Korea

cell: 010.2267.4666

email: david@aanenson.net

+ + work hard, have fun, be creative

PROFESSIONAL:

APRIL 2009 - DEC. 2009

instructor, topia english academy, seoul

english instruction in a hagwon with students from second grade to sixth duties :

- + taught 28 hours of class per week to consist of reading, writing, listening, and phonics
- + planned the daily lessons
- + administered both placement and regular class exams
- + oversaw classroom management

JUNE 2006 - AUG. 2008

project coordinator, anshen + allen architects, san francisco

construction documentation in a 200 person architecture firm specializing in healthcare and academic projects project : New Mills-Peninsula Hospital and Medical Office Building - Burlingame

cost: $500,000 million / square footage: 440,000 sf / beds: 245

APRIL 2005 - MAY 2006

intern architect, carter and burgess, oakland construction documentation in a 30 person architecture and engineering firm specializing in transportation, airports, parking garages, maintenance facilities and higher education

project : ETP (Explosive Trace Portal) deployment - TSA

project : Cathcart Maintenance Center - Snohomish County Public Works

NOV. 2004 - FEB. 2005

designer, c3 design alliance, san francisco

construction documentation in a 4 person architectural firm specializing in fire stations, tenant improvements and corporation yards

SM 2003

internship, dr. kisho kurokawa architect & associates, tokyo

participated in the design development masterplan and preliminary layout designs for bio-valley research institute in malaysia in addition to the master plan for the city, nanning, china. i used autocad in conjunction with adobe illustrator to assemble presentation layouts for clients

EDUCATION:

SP 2004

professional degree in architecture, university of oregon

minors: architectural history and geography

FL/WN/SP 2001-2002

copenhagen, denmark

SM 2001

rome, italy

SM 2000

pacific northwest historic preservation field school

shelton johnson / mcmurphy house, eugene, or

LEADERSHIP:

SP 2003-2004

coordinator, h.o.p.e.s. sustainable architecture conference coordinated student volunteers for the background site logistics for the 3 day event

FL 2002

teaching assistant, baker lighting lab, university of oregon

oversaw the rental of testing equipment as well as the preparation of models to be tested with the heliodon. communicated with professors and developed original schemes for the new lab design

FL 2002

team member, design charrette, architecture for humanity, mobile aids clinic worked together in a group to produce drawings for the competition

FL 1999

teaching assistant, introduction to architecture, university of oregon

lead a team of 8 first year students to help learn and understand spatial relationships and basic architectural concepts

EXTRA:

+ TEFL Interntional Certificate, Seville, Spain, 2008

+ Architectural Licensing Exams, 2008

+ LEED® Accredited Professional, 2004

+ fluent in AutoCad, Archicad, Word, Excel, Photoshop, Illustrator, In-Design, and Pagemaker

+ avid runner, mountain biker, outdoor junkie, bibliophile, artist, and world traveler

REFERENCES:

+ Tim Carruthers, foreign teacher coordinator, Topia Academy

cell: 010.7197.4846